YOUTH WORKER TRAINING

Venue: Holiday Resort, Kosovo

Date: 26 November– 02 December, 2023

---

The international training activity in Colors of Humanity project is planned to be implemented following the scheme of non-formal education. The youth workers will be empowered with knowledge and skills regarding human rights and non-discrimination, EU values, solidarity and tolerance, social cohesion and inclusion, as well as advocacy and raising awareness in their community.

The selected participants from each team will actively contribute to COL project as agents of change. Their empowerment through capacity building activities in mobilities in international level within the countries of COL consortium, as well as in national level, will directly impact not only the selected participants but also their community by implementing a local change activism. The goals of these capacity building activities are:

- To support and raise the advocacy capacities of youth workers to affect their community
- To increase the involvement of several stakeholders (youth workers, boys, young men, teachers, parents, decision-makers) on gender antidiscrimination and awareness activities
- To raising awareness and advocacy countering hate speech, combating discrimination, breaking down traditional gender roles and Erasmus+ Programs

Objectives of the International training on Hate Speech

Building Capacity for Advocacy and Understanding the Dynamics of Hate Speech and Gender Equality

Promoting Inclusivity and Empowerment for Marginalized Communities Affected by Hate Speech

Increase youth workers skills in communication for hate speech and awareness campaign
